INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges:

Introductory Allegations

At all relevant times unless otherwise specified:

1. ARVCO Capital Research, LLC was a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the State of Nevada, with its principal place of business in Stateline, Nevada. ARVCO also did business under the names “ARVCO Capital Research,” “ARVCO Financial Ventures, LLC,” and “Capital Formation Partners.” ARVCO Capital Research, LLC,

1 ARVCO Capital Research, ARVCO Financial Ventures, LLC, and Capital Formation Partners
2 will be referred to collectively hereinafter as “ARVCO.”

3 2. ALFRED J. VILLALOBOS was the founder, managing director, and majority
4 shareholder for ARVCO and all of its predecessor entities.

5 3. Among other business ventures, VILLALOBOS operated ARVCO as a placement
6 agent that solicited investments by public pension funds into private equity funds. ARVCO was 7 typically paid an agreed upon fee based on the percentage of the total dollar amount invested by 8 the public pension fund.

9 4. From on or about December 1, 2002, until on or about May 12, 2008, FEDERICO
10 R. BUENROSTRO, JR., aka Fred Buenrostro (“BUENROSTRO”), served as the Chief
11 Executive Officer (“CEO”) of the California Public Employees’ Retirement System
12 (“CalPERS”). BUENROSTRO retired from CalPERS on or about June 30, 2008. He began 13 working as an ARVCO consultant on or about July 1, 2008.

14 5. CalPERS was an entity created by the State of California that, among other duties
15 and obligations, operated the pension benefit system and health care benefit programs for current 16 and former employees of the State of California and other public entities in California. CalPERS
17 was headquartered in Sacramento, California, and maintained offices throughout California,
18 including within the Northern District of California. CalPERS provided retirement and health
19 care benefits, among other services, including residents in the Northern District of California.

20 6. Apollo Global Management (“Apollo”) was a private equity firm based in New 21 York, New York. Prior to 2007, ARVCO had acted as the placement agent on several of 22 CalPERS’ investments into Apollo funds.

23 Apollo Announces Investor Disclosure Requirement for its Placement Agents

24 7. In or around March 2007, Apollo registered with the Securities and Exchange
25 Commission (“SEC”) as an investment advisor. Thereafter, in order to comply with securities
26 laws and regulations, Apollo required all of its placement agents to obtain a signed “Investor
27 Disclosure” letter from any investor that they successfully placed in an Apollo-managed fund.
28 Apollo maintained these Investor Disclosure letters provided by the placement agents in its files

1 to comply with the SEC's requirement that investment advisors keep and maintain accurate
2 books and records, among other reasons.

3 8. One of the purposes of the Investor Disclosure letters was to memorialize that 4 investors were aware of the relationship between the placement agent and Apollo. The Investor
5 Disclosure letters specifically confirmed, among other things, that (1) the placement agent was 6 working on behalf of Apollo; (2) Apollo would pay the placement agent a certain fee in 7 connection with the investor's promise to transmit funds into the particular Apollo-managed 8 fund; (3) the fee to be paid to the placement agent would not increase the management fee or 9 other expenses borne by the investor nor reduce the investor's capital; and, (4) the investor had 10 been provided certain documents related to the investment in the particular Apollo-managed 11 fund.

12 9. Apollo notified its existing placement agents, including ARVCO, of this new 13 policy in writing and advised them that Apollo would not pay any fee to any placement agent,
14 unless and until it received a signed Investor Disclosure letter as to each investor in each fund
15 with whom the placement agent had successfully placed in an Apollo-managed fund.

16 10. Between approximately August 2007 and approximately April 2008, CalPERS
17 invested approximately $3 billion dollars into funds managed by Apollo, identified as: Fund VII,
18 Apollo Investment Europe ("AIE"), Special Opportunities Managed Account ("SOMA"), 19 European Principal Loan Fund ("EPF"), and Credit Opportunity Fund ("COF") (referred to 20 collectively hereinafter as "Apollo-managed funds").

21 11. ARVCO acted as the placement agent on behalf of Apollo in connection with 22 each of these investments by CalPERS. In each instance, Apollo required ARVCO to obtain a
23 written Investor Disclosure letter from CalPERS prior to paying ARVCO any fees for its efforts
24 in securing CalPERS' investments in each of the subject Apollo-managed funds, citing, among 25 other reasons, Apollo's obligations under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. All references to 26 Investor Disclosure letters throughout this Indictment refer collectively to the letters relating to 27 CalPERS' investments, placed by ARVCO, into Fund VII, AIE, SOMA, EPF, and COF.

28 ///

1 CalPERS Declines to Execute Investor Disclosure Letter for Fund VII

2 12. On or about August 23, 2007, ARVCO's General Counsel e-mailed a CalPERS
3 Senior Portfolio Manager with oversight over private equity investments and requested that he
4 execute an Investor Disclosure letter.

5 13. Later that day, the CalPERS Senior Portfolio Manager notified ARVCO's
6 General Counsel that CalPERS would not sign the proposed Investor Disclosure letter and 7 referred any further questions regarding the matter to CalPERS' in-house counsel. ARVCO's
8 General Counsel contacted CalPERS' in-house counsel, who confirmed that CalPERS would not 9 execute the requested Investor Disclosure letter.

10 14. Shortly thereafter, ARVCO's General Counsel also informed VILLALOBOS that 11 CalPERS would not execute the requested Investor Disclosure letter.

12 United States' Investigation of ARVCO

13 15. On or about May 9, 2009, ARVCO registered with the SEC as a broker-dealer.
14 As a registered broker-dealer, ARVCO was thereafter required, among other duties and 15 obligations, to make and to keep accurate books and records detailing, among other things, its 16 securities transactions, and to furnish copies of those records and other information to the SEC
17 upon request.

18 16. On or about July 17, 2009, the SEC sent a Section 21(a) inquiry to ARVCO 19 seeking information about, among other things, its role as a placement agent in connection with 20 investments by public pension funds into private equity and other investment vehicles.

21 17. On or about August 7, 2009 and on or about September 25, 2009, ARVCO filed 22 reports with the SEC, notarized and signed under penalty of perjury, in which ARVCO, among 23 other things, claimed that it had obtained a series of Investor Disclosure letters from CalPERS
24 after June 2007.

25 18. Between on or about August 21, 2009 and continuing to at least May 26, 2010, in 26 response to a further inquiry, ARVCO produced documents to the SEC.

27 19. On or about May 18, 2010, the United States Postal Inspection Service ("USPIS")
28 opened a criminal investigation of ARVCO into possible mail fraud, wire fraud, and related

1 charges. The focus of the inquiry included ARVCO's response to the SEC regarding its role as a
2 placement agent in connection with investments made by CalPERS in private equity funds, the 3 circumstances surrounding ARVCO's receipt of commission fees from Apollo, and Investor
4 Disclosure letters relating to CalPERS' investments into Apollo-managed funds in 2007 and 5 2008.

6 20. On or about June 1, 2010, the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") opened a
7 criminal investigation into substantially similar matters. Shortly thereafter, the USPIS and FBI
8 agreed to investigate jointly the matters relating to ARVCO and its participation in CalPERS'
9 investments into Apollo-managed funds.

10 21. During the course of the investigations conducted by the SEC, the USPIS, and the 11 FBI, the following matters, among others, were material to each:

- 12 a. When, and the manner and means by which, someone signed Investor
13 Disclosure letters on behalf of CalPERS in connection with CalPERS'
14 investments in certain Apollo-managed funds;
- 15 b. Whether and when anyone provided any of the signed Investor Disclosure
16 letters to CalPERS' intra-office mail system for filing in its investment 17 records database; and,
- 18 c. Whether and to what an ARVCO representative asked anyone to sign 19 Investor Disclosure letters that were missing substantive terms.

20 22. On or about February 3, 2012, BUENROSTRO submitted to a voluntary
21 interview in San Francisco, California, with the SEC, the USPIS, the FBI, and United States
22 Attorney's Office ("USAO") in connection with their ongoing investigations. BUENROSTRO 23 responded to questions about his role in, and knowledge of, the creation, execution, and 24 transmittal of the Investor Disclosure letters relating to CalPERS' investments into 25 Apollo-managed funds in 2007 and 2008.

1 COUNT ONE: (18 U.S.C. § 371 – Conspiracy to Defraud the United States)

2 23. Paragraphs 1 through 22 are realleged as if fully set forth herein.

3 24. On or about and between January 2008 and November 2012, both dates being
4 approximate and inclusive, in the Northern District of California, and elsewhere, the defendants,

5 ALFRED J. VILLALOBOS and
6 FEDERICO R. BUENROSTRO, JR.,
aka Fred Buenrostro,

7 and others, did knowingly and intentionally conspire to defraud the United States through deceit,
8 craft, trickery, and dishonest means for the purpose of attempting to defeat and obstruct the 9 lawful functions of the SEC, USPIS, and FBI, in the oversight and enforcement of the laws
10 relating to the offer, sale, and purchase of securities, and other federal criminal laws.

11 Manner and Means of the Conspiracy to Defraud the United States

12 25. VILLALOBOS and BUENROSTRO created a series of fraudulent
13 Investor Disclosure letters in order to satisfy Apollo's record-keeping obligations under the 14 securities laws and regulations and to ensure ARVCO's receipt of commission fees from Apollo.
15 Thereafter, VILLALOBOS and BUENROSTRO covered up and lied to the SEC, the USPIS, and 16 the FBI, about the authenticity of the Investor Disclosure letters during investigations by those 17 agencies related to CalPERS' investments in Apollo-managed funds.

18 26. In reliance on the fraudulent Investor Disclosure letters created by VILLALOBOS
19 and BUENROSTRO, between on or about January 2008, and on or about October 2009, Apollo
20 paid ARVCO a total of approximately $14 million dollars in fees in relation to the investments
21 made by CalPERS into Apollo-managed funds.

22 Overt Acts

23 27. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to effect the objects thereof, the following
24 overt acts were committed in the Northern District of California and elsewhere:

- 25 a. On or about January 2, 2008, VILLALOBOS, BUENROSTRO, and others
26 created a backdated Investor Disclosure letter for ARVCO in connection
27 with CalPERS' investment in Fund VII;
28 b. On or about January 3, 2008, VILLALOBOS caused that Fund VII

Investor Disclosure letter to be transmitted via interstate carrier from Nevada to New York;

- c. On or about January 11, 2008, BUENROSTRO signed, and in some cases dated, Investor Disclosure letters that were missing substantive terms;
- d. On or about January 13, 2008, VILLALOBOS and others inserted substantive terms summarizing ARVCO's role in connection with CalPERS' investments in AIE, SOMA, and EPF, onto the incomplete Investor Disclosure letters previously signed and dated by BUENROSTRO;
- e. On or about January 14, 2008, VILLALOBOS caused the Investor Disclosure letters for AIE, SOMA, and EPF, to be transmitted via interstate carrier from California to New York;
- f. On or about June 19, 2008, VILLALOBOS and others inserted substantive terms summarizing ARVCO's role in connection with CalPERS' investment in COF, onto an incomplete Investor Disclosure letter previously signed by BUENROSTRO and added the written date of "5/20/08";
- g. On or about June 19, 2008, VILLALOBOS caused the COF Investor Disclosure letter to be transmitted via interstate carrier from Nevada to New York;
- h. On about July 1, 2008, VILLALOBOS hired BUENROSTRO to work for ARVCO, initially as a consultant and later as a full-time employee;
- i. On or about June 16, 2009, ARVCO transmitted via interstate wire transmission a copy of the COF Investor Disclosure letter to Apollo;
- j. On or about August 7, 2009, VILLALOBOS transmitted, or caused to be transmitted, ARVCO's "Sworn Statement Pursuant to Section 21(a)(1) of the Securities Act of 1934" to the SEC;

- 1 k. On or about September 24, 2009, VILLALOBOS executed, under penalty
2 of perjury, ARVCO's "Supplemental Sworn Statement Pursuant to Section
3 21(a)(1) of the Securities Act of 1934";
- 4 l. On or about September 25, 2009, VILLALOBOS transmitted, or caused to 5 be transmitted, ARVCO's "Supplemental Sworn Statement Pursuant to 6 Section 21(a)(1) of the Securities Act of 1934" to the SEC;
- 7 m. On or about December 27, 2010, BUENROSTRO falsely answered certain 8 questions under oath in a deposition in the civil action of People v.
9 Villalobos et al., (Los Angeles County Superior Court, SC 107850), 10 regarding his role in, and knowledge of, the creation, execution and 11 transmittal of the fraudulent Investor Disclosure letters;
- 12 n. On or about November 28, 2011, VILLALOBOS executed a written 13 response to the SEC's "Wells" notice in which he, among other things,
14 (1) adopted BUENROSTRO's prior false statements from the December 15 2010 deposition about the Investor Disclosure letters; and,
16 (2) falsely represented and concealed his role in the creation, execution,
17 and transmittal of the fraudulent Investor Disclosure letters;
- 18 o. On or about February 3, 2012, BUENROSTRO participated in a voluntary
19 interview with the SEC, the USPIS, and the FBI, in which he falsely 20 represented, among other things:
- 21 (1) that he never signed any Investor Disclosure letters that 22 were missing substantive terms;
- 23 (2) that he did not backdate any Investor Disclosure letters; 24 and,
- 25 (3) that he had signed two original copies of complete Investor
26 Disclosure letters for Fund VII, SOMA, AIE, EPF, and 27 COF, whereupon he had provided one original to ARVCO
28 and submitted the second original to CalPERS' intra-office

1 COUNT TWO: (18 U.S.C. § 1001(a)(1) – False Scheme Against the United States)

2 30. Paragraphs 1 through 22 and 25 through 27 are realleged and incorporated as if
3 set forth fully herein.

4 31. From on or about and between January 2008 and November 19, 2012, both dates
5 being approximate and inclusive, in the Northern District of California, and elsewhere, the
6 defendants,

7 ALFRED J. VILLALOBOS and
8 FEDERICO R. BUENROSTRO, JR.,
aka Fred Buenrostro,

9 and others, did knowingly and willfully falsify, conceal, and cover up by trick, scheme, or device
10 material facts, specifically facts about how the Investor Disclosure letters relating to CalPERS'
11 investment in Apollo-managed funds were created, executed, and transmitted, in a matter within 12 the jurisdiction of the SEC, the USPIS, and the FBI, all agencies of the executive branch of the 13 United States.

14 All in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1001(a)(1).

15 COUNT THREE: (18 U.S.C. § 1349 – Conspiracy to Commit Mail Fraud and Wire Fraud)

16 32. Paragraphs 1 through 22 and 25 through 27 are realleged and incorporated as if 17 set forth fully herein.

18 33. From on or about and between June 2008 and November 19, 2012, both dates
19 being approximate and inclusive, in the Northern District of California and elsewhere, the 20 defendants,

21 ALFRED J. VILLALOBOS and
22 FEDERICO R. BUENROSTRO, JR.,
aka Fred Buenrostro,

23 did knowingly and intentionally attempt and conspire with other persons known and unknown to 24 the grand jury to commit offenses against the United States, specifically, mail fraud and wire
25 fraud, in connection with the Investor Disclosure letter for CalPERS' investment in COF, in 26 violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1341 and 1343.

27 All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1349.

1 COUNT FOUR: (18 U.S.C. § 1001(a)(2) – False Statement to the United States)

2 34. Paragraphs 1 through 22 and 25 through 27 are realleged and incorporated as if
3 set forth fully herein.

4 35. On or about February 3, 2012, in the Northern District of California, the
5 defendant,

6 FEDERICO BUENROSTRO, JR.
7 aka Fred Buenrostro,

8 in a matter within the executive branch of the Government of the United States, did knowingly 9 and willfully make the following materially false, fictitious, and fraudulent statements and 10 representations, in a matter within the jurisdiction of the SEC, the USPIS, and the FBI:

- 11 (1) BUENROSTRO stated that he never signed any Investor Disclosure letters that
- 12 were missing substantive terms in connection with CalPERS’ investments in
- 13 Apollo-managed funds;
- 14 (2) BUENROSTRO stated that, with the exception of certain Investor Disclosure
- 15 letters dated “5/20/08,” he signed and dated each Investor Disclosure relating to
- 16 Fund VII, SOMA, and AIE on November 20, 2007; and,
- 17 (3) BUENROSTRO stated that he signed two originals of each Investor Disclosure
- 18 letter for CalPERS’ investments in Fund VII, SOMA, AIE, EPF, and COF,
- 19 providing one original to VILLALOBOS and ARVCO and the other to CalPERS’
- 20 intra-office mail for filing in CalPERS’ investment files.

21 All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1001(a)(2).

1 COUNT FIVE: (18 U.S.C. § 1505 – Obstruction of Justice)

2 36. Paragraphs 1 through 22 and 25 through 27 are realleged and incorporated as if 3 fully set forth herein.

4 37. On or about February 3, 2012, in the Northern District of California, the
5 defendant,

6 FEDERICO BUENROSTRO, JR.
7 aka Fred Buenrostro,

8 did corruptly influence, obstruct, and impede, and endeavor to corruptly influence, obstruct, and 9 impede, the proper and due administration of law under which a pending proceeding was being 10 had before one or more departments or agencies of the United States, specifically, the USPIS and 11 the FBI, by knowingly making material statements that were intentionally evasive, false, and
